Born August 14, 1981 in Edmonton, Alberta and raised in the Ottawa Valley, Tanya was interested in music and performance at a young age. She started composing music before she entered kindergarten, began writing lyrics at 12 and starred in musical theatre productions in grade school. Between her 11th birthday and her 21st, Tanya Lipscomb learned how to play the clarinet, trumpet, keyboard, guitar, bass, mandolin, drums, and many more. The most recent instruments she has added to her repertoire are an electric ukulele, a banjo and a Boss RC 300 loop pedal. She has toured across the country using the loop pedal which has given her the opportunity to build a wall of music with a full band sound.

Currently Tanya resides in Vernon, BC and is working on her 13th album due out in June 2015. She continually tours Western Canada playing festivals, house concerts, jazz clubs, pubs, restaurants, cafes and bars, promoting her music and positivity.
