

TANYA LIPSCOMB GENERAL PRESS RELEASE 2015

A musical chameleon, Tanya Lipscomb will be baring her musical soul at (insert venue name here) with some bluesy jazz, funky beats, conscientious hip hop and rocking folk . This spicy one-woman show is a real and raw Canadian performer. With award-winning fresh lyrics, and a rich, soulful 3-octave voice, Tanya has joyfully produced a plethora of unique and diverse songs with influences from around the globe. She has independently released 12 albums, toured across Canada and regularly tours Western Canada. Touring as a multi-instrumentalist, loop pedal artist, she has brought audiences to tears, to laughter and to the dance floor all on her own.

Born in Edmonton, raised in the Ottawa valley, and currently a resident of Vernon BC, she began composing music before kindergarten and has been writing, recording, producing and performing ever since. She has starred in musical theatre productions, been a member of a handful of bands, played in concert bands and sung in choirs and vocal groups. Tanya has performed on stages across Canada opening for or singing with the likes of Tom Cochrane, Wide Mouth Mason, Russel Jackson, Buddy Guy, and Luluk Purwanto. Currently, Tanya is balancing raising children, performing in 4 different projects, and recording her latest album due out June 2015.

With contagious charisma, remarkable stage presence and interactive performances, Tanya often transforms the audience into the performers as young and old sing along. Not just a singer/song writer; Tanya Lipscomb is an ENTERTAINER! Check her out at (insert venue name and gig details).
